Annex to the note verbale dated 22 May 2007 from the Permanent Mission of Ukraine to the United Nations addressed to the Chairman of the Committee

Information regarding Ukraine's implementation of Security Council resolutions 1737 (2006) and 1747 (2007)

Ukraine consistently devotes particular attention to ensuring that Security Council resolutions are implemented, and adheres strictly to their provisions.

The Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Ukraine promptly informed all the State executive bodies concerned of the action which must be taken pursuant to paragraphs 3-8, 10, 12 and 17 of Security Council resolution 1737 (2006) and paragraphs 2 and 4-7 of Security Council resolution 1747 (2007).

The Ministry of Foreign Affairs has prepared a draft Order of the Cabinet of Ministers of Ukraine on the implementation of Security Council resolutions 1737 (2006) and 1747 (2007) concerning the Islamic Republic of Iran. The draft Order is currently at the final stage of internal approval.

Ukraine intends to continue its close collaboration with the Security Council Committee established by resolution 1737 (2006), with the aim of fulfilling the requirements of the above-mentioned resolutions.
